CLOSE TO HOME

Arundel embodies the essence of small town living in the modern world. A thousand years of heritage are seamlessly integrated with contemporary shops, cafés and restaurants, as well as a thriving art and culture scene.

With many majestic Medieval, Georgian and Victorian buildings set around a block-paved central square, the town centre has a historic Home Counties feel. A wide selection of independent shops provides everything from artisan and field-to-fork foods to designer fashions and homewares.

The town's ancient landmarks include the imposing Gothic cathedral and magnificent Arundel Castle, set in 40 acres of grounds and gardens next to the sweeping course of the River Arun. Here you can relax on a summer's day and watch the match unfold at the Arundel Castle Cricket Ground, a beautiful 3.5-acre amphitheatre created in 1895, with amazing views over the Arun Valley.

Arundel has an exciting year-round programme of events, including the 10-day Arundel Festival of the Arts, which takes place every August. Enjoy music, art, theatre, culture, food and drink in an inclusive, community-focused celebration.

Located between the River Arun and ancient woodland, Arundel Gate is the perfect place to live if you enjoy spending time in the great outdoors. Start the day with an energising run, go for a riverside ramble or a walk in the forest, or simply pick your spot and enjoy some quiet time in scenic surroundings. Experience the Arundel Wetlands Centre, a 60 acre reserve situated at the foot of the Offham Hangar, part of the Arun valley. Wide-open spaces and wetlands full of the sights and sounds of nature.

Whether you fancy a day out shopping, a visit to the seaside or a trip to London, it is all within easy reach from Arundel Gate.

The cathedral city of Chichester is just over 12 miles from Arundel Gate. The city's pedestrianised shopping area is an easy and convenient place to enjoy some retail therapy, with plenty of famous High Street names, as well as an extensive range of independent stores to explore. On the outskirts of the city is the Portfield Retail Park, which has 150,000 sq ft of shop space and is home to several big brands, including M&S and John Lewis at Home.

For a day out at the seaside, the West Sussex Coast is just a short drive away. Littlehampton is a traditional, family-friendly resort with two award-winning beaches, a large seafront green and an amusement park. Alternatively, if you prefer to be away from it all, nearby Climping Beach is a delightful, secluded spot for sunbathing or a seaside stroll.

Travel inland from Arundel Gate and you will soon be in the glorious landscapes of the South Downs National Park. With rolling, green hills, extensive grasslands, ancient woodlands and windswept chalk cliffs, this is one of the UK's most outstanding areas of natural beauty.

There is a wide choice of educational establishments for all age groups in and around Arundel, including two primary schools within the town itself. Well-respected local state and independent secondary schools include the St Philip Howard Catholic School in Barnham (rated 'Outstanding' by Ofsted) and Slindon College in the South Downs National Park.

TIME FOR LEISURE

When it comes to making the most of your leisure time, life at Arundel Gate will be full of opportunities for socialising, sports and pastimes.

Make time for your physical and mental wellbeing through fitness, fun and relaxation. Whether you prefer a workout at the gym or a walk in the country, living at Arundel Gate will give you every chance to enjoy your favourite leisure activities without having to travel too far.

In the summer months, you can go for a swim at Arundel Lido, which has heated outdoor pools in a lovely riverside setting. Nearby Littlehampton has a selection of gyms and health clubs, as well as a watersports centre which offers kitesurfing, paddleboarding, wing foiling and windsurfing. You can also enjoy a round of golf with stunning sea views at the historic Littlehampton Golf Club, West Sussex's only links course.

As the gateway to the South Downs National Park, Arundel is well known as a centre of outdoor pursuits. There are scenic pathways along the River Arun and around Swanbourne Lake, as well as hiking and cycling routes along the South Downs Way. You can also go canoeing or hire a boat and take a leisurely trip down the river.

If you love eating out, you will be spoilt for choice. Arundel is a foodies' paradise, with a huge variety of cafés, bistros, gastropubs and restaurants. Enjoy all kinds of dining, from pub classics and pizza to tapas, Asian fusion and modern British cooking making the most of locally-sourced, seasonal produce.
